

Plato showroom by Whitespace, Bangkok – Thailand

April 5th, 2016 by retail design blog

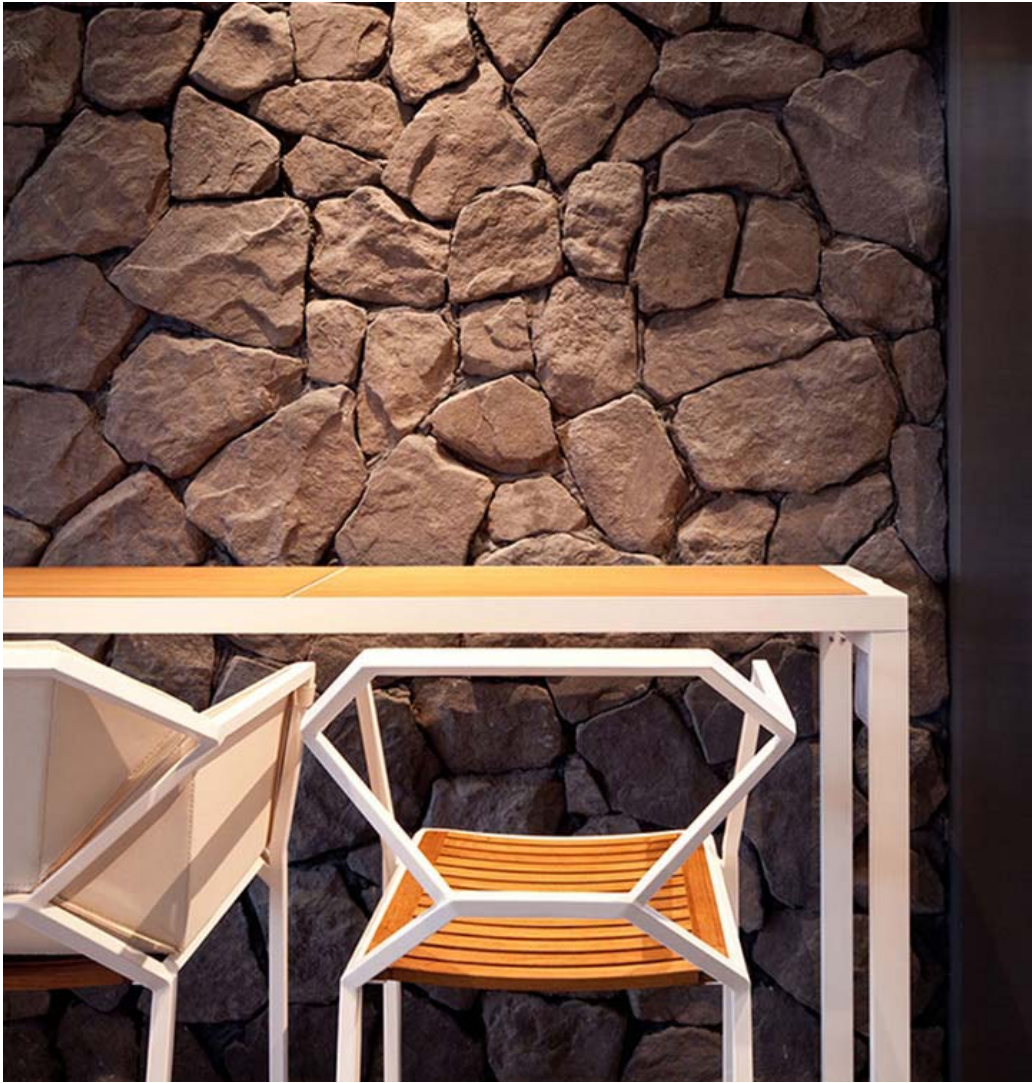

Thai contemporary teak furniture company, Plato, asked Whitespace to design their flagship showroom at Bangkok's premier furniture complex targeting the design trade. Conceived as a theater for furniture organized around a 5.9 meter stage, the 450 sq. meter showroom uses a dramatic range of materials and lighting to create backdrops intended to attract and inspire designers and their clients.

Designed by [Whitespace Co.,Ltd. \[http://www.whitesp-ce.com/\]](http://www.whitesp-ce.com/)

Photography by Wison Tungthunya

Share this:

f Share 0 Tweet G+ Share 4 Email Print

Posted in furniture store, showroom | Tags: backdrops, bangkok, complex, flagship, lighting, materials, Plato, range, Showroom, thailand, whitespace

IWC Schaffhausen flagship boutique, New York
IWC has now given us something special, their first US and New York City bou...

Formafantasma's Anno Tropico exhibition, Milan - Italy
The pieces are designed to "shape" light, generating

Bottega Veneta Maison, Los Angeles - California

iStudio United Center by Whitespace, Bangkok - Thailand
In addition to the large Apple product demonstration area